Joint Membership!

Does your state or regional farmers market association participate in FMC's Joint Membership Program?

Participating organizations receive a discounted rate! For more info, email Liz Comiskey at liz@farmersmarketcoalition.org.

FMC Membership Benefits

The Farmers Market Coalition is possible only with the support of markets, farmers, and advocates who want to see farmers markets thrive. Membership support helps us grow and improve the Farmers Market Resource Library, host the FMC-List listserv, and keep the community up to date through our newsletter and social media pages. In addition, your membership gives you:

- A voice and a vote in membership meetings and Board of Directors elections;
- Representation at the table with federal agencies and organizations which provide funding for farmers markets and establish national policy;
- Regular policy updates, action alerts, and other advocacy opportunities;
- Priority access to a volunteer team of farmers market practitioners to help answer your most important questions;
- Access to member-only Directors' & Officers' Insurance Policy for nonprofit farmers market organizations Access to affordable producer liability insurance coverage;
- Access to regular member-only webinars on timely education topics and opportunities to have your questions answered live by experts;
- Access to the member only Farmers Market Resource Library;
- Opportunities to participate in special member-only programs like Discover You Can;
- An electronic subscription to the market beet, our seasonal electronic newsletter;
- Access to National Farmers Market Week promotional tools;
- A special 'Proud member' badge for your organization's web site, which links your visitors directly to FMC's valuable resources;
- Knowing that your contribution improves our ability to build farmers markets' capacity today, tomorrow, and in years to come; and supports the success of direct farmers nationwide.
